

Survey by iJet – Travel Alert Management Company

- 46% of UK & US travellers work for companies that don't have a travel policy
- 22% of UK & US travellers have no idea who to alert in the event of an emergency
- 54% of UK & US travellers carry no specific phone numbers for use in an emergency

But isn't that just an issue for travellers abroad?

2017

22nd March - Westminster – 4 killed & 50 injured

22nd May - Manchester Arena – 22 killed & 139 injured

3rd June – London Bridge – 8 killed & 48 injured

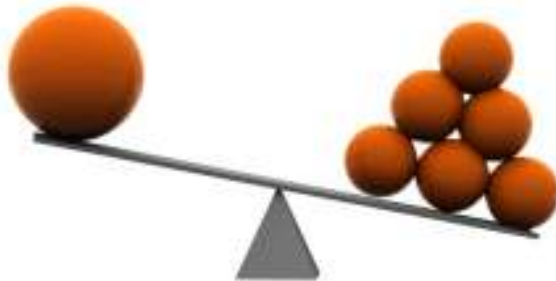

19th June – Finsbury Park – 1 killed

15th September – Parsons Green Tube – 30 injured

Who holds the responsibility for when employees travel on Bleisure?

COMPANIES

INDIVIDUALS

How do companies mitigate the Risks?

- Limit the number Leisure days an employee can take
- Explain that employees would not be covered if their 'Leisure Trip' represents too great a departure from the business itinerary.
 - avoid high risk areas
- Assert that the employee adheres to the elements of the travel policy that protect them from identified risks
 - may include mobile tracking
 - making regular contact with the office
 - reviewing weather & hygiene updates
 - prior to departing attending risk assessment briefings

